MARKET OPPORTUNITY

| Segment                              | Value             | Growth              |
|--------------------------------------|-------------------|---------------------|
| UK EdTech Market (2024)              | £2.4–2.8 billion  | 12–15% CAGR to 2030 |
| UK Private Tutoring Market           | £2.5–3.2 billion  | 5–8% YoY            |
| GCSE Candidates (annual, England)    | ~630,000 students | Stable              |
| A-Level Candidates (annual, England) | ~265,000 students | Stable              |
| UK Secondary Students (11–18)        | ~3 million        | Stable              |

If Knowledgeable reaches just 2% of the GCSE cohort as paying subscribers at £10/month, that is 12,600 users generating £1.5M annually from one segment alone.

COMPETITIVE LANDSCAPE

| Platform        | Type           | Price        | News | Media Lit. | Exam    | Skills |
|-----------------|----------------|--------------|------|------------|---------|--------|
| BBC Bitesize    | Exam revision  | Free         | No   | No         | Yes     | No     |
| Seneca Learning | Exam revision  | Freemium     | No   | No         | Yes     | No     |
| The Day         | News education | B2B          | Yes  | Yes        | No      | No     |
| Khan Academy    | Academic       | Free         | No   | No         | Partial | No     |
| Skillshare      | Skills         | Subscription | No   | No         | No      | Yes    |
| Knowledgeable   | All-in-one     | Free + paid  | Yes  | Yes        | Yes     | Yes    |

No UK platform combines all five pillars. Knowledgeable is the only student-direct platform offering verified news, media literacy, exam support, and skills under one brand.
